

Objective	Goals	Strategy
1. Provide a common European representation of osteopathic schools in Europe	a. Increase the number of member-schools of OsEAN	1. Promote the name and reputation of OsEAN as an academic network (Newsletter, Open Forum, Website, Button-Web-Schools)
		2. Support the upcoming and new members, development of a to-do list
		3. Target three new members each year
		4. Promote the membership of OsEAN as a trademark for good education
	b. Collaboration with other European osteopathic organizations	1. Intensify the collaboration with FORE
		2. Intensify the collaboration with EFO
	3. Examine the possibilities in collaboration with EROP, NCOR, EBOM, IORN, etc.
Objective	Goals	Strategy
2. Provide the academic recognition of osteopathy in Europe	a. Validate and control the educational programs at an MSc level	1. Collaboration with the Austrian Standards Institute (ASI) in implementation of Audits
		2. Write a CEN-standard in osteopathic Education (OsEAN standard)
	b. Increase the collaboration for academic partnership with universities (Science and Profession)	1. Link the members of OsEAN with existing collaborating universities
		2. Support the members in getting an academic degree at an MSc-level
		3. Provide and support the OsEAN-members to get a legalization of the schools in the European countries
	c. Position of OsEAN as a reference point for academic and professional organizations	1. Support unbiased information of osteopathic education in relation to the standards
		2. Build up an relationship with educational, research and other official organizations
		3. Organizing the two-yearly Open Forum conferences and increase the number of participants
	d. Support the development, growth and capacity of European research in osteopathy	1. Increase the participants at the database in osteopathic research (www.osteoo-research.com)
		2. Increase collaboration with CORPP, COME, EBOM, IORN, etc.
		3. Development of (inter)national research programs to increase the data
		4. Development of a satisfaction survey of patients treated with osteopathy in Europe
Objective	Goals	Strategy
3. Promote the identity of osteopathy in a standardized model	a. Development of a standardized model of osteopathic education	1. Define the medical, osteopathic and bio-psycho-social knowledge and skills in osteopathic education (CanMed)
		2. Writing a CEN-standard in Osteopathic Education
		3. Define and support the traineeships of students in the national healthcare in each country
		4. Develop an exchange in assessment and examination strategy
	b. Development of an independent, clearly and identifiable profession	1. Develop the Dublin-descriptors in osteopathic Education
		2. Define and develop the osteopathic clinical education in the osteopathic approach of patients
		3. Increase and formalize the examiners-exchange program
	c. Implementation of the osteopathic models in education	1. Biomechanical. Respiratory & circulatory, neurologic, biopsychosocial and bio-energetic model

Objective	Goals	Strategy
4. Provide high trained teachers in osteopathic education	a. Support the development of pedagogic and didactic knowledge and skills for teachers	1. Monitoring pedagogic degrees for teachers in osteopathy in the different European countries
		2. Describe the skills for teaching in osteopathic education in theory and practice, develop a database of contacts and promote the exchange
	b. Increase the train the teacher programs	1. Support and improve the online-module in train the teacher
		2. Increase the number and accessibility of the life train the teacher modules
	c. Increase the teachers-exchange programs	1. Creating a database of available teachers with their competence
		2. Creating the format, forms and regulation of exchanging teachers
		3. Promote and simplify the students-exchange
Objective	Goals	Strategy
5. Provide a transparent and effective forum for engaged members	a. Increase the exchange programs	1. Simplify the documents for exchanging students, teachers and examiners
		2. Provide the secretariat with data to keep statistics
		3. Establish a database of teachers and examiners with their topics
	b. Improve the research databases	1. Motivate, reward and remind schools to update the databases of the website
		2. Create the format for schools to join the databases
		3. Development of international studies (Practice Based Evidence)
Objective	Goals	Strategy
6. Building a strategic and strong partnership with other organizations sharing the mission and vision of OsEAN	a. Maintain and develop partnerships with European and international osteopathic organizations	1. Collaborate with European organizations on joint initiatives, such as the CEN-standard
		2. Maintain the dialogue and exchange of information between the European Organization such as EFO, EROP and FORE
		3. Maintain the dialogue and exchange of information between the international organizations, such as OIA
	b. Build a strategy with the partners to excess the same goals	1. Develop a strategic plan with EFO and FORE